

I support small locally owned media outlets. I do not support large corporate media conglomerates. I believe the quality of media, news in particular, received will be greatly decreased.